

Instructor's Manual and Test Bank

for

WILCOX/CAMERON/REBER

Public Relations: Strategies and Tactics

Eleventh Edition

prepared by

Justin Pettigrew
University of Georgia

Andrew Lingwall
Clarion University of Pennsylvania

Chapter 1 Test Bank

1.1 Multiple-Choice Questions

1. Public relations is a worldwide industry. While it is most developed in the U.S., what country is considered the “new frontier” for public relations?

- A) Japan.
 - B) United States.
 - C) South Africa.
 - D) China.
- Answer: D

Page Ref: 6

2. Which of the following terms is generally associated within the accepted definitions of public relations?

- A) promotion
- B) management
- C) profitability
- D) mutually beneficial outcomes

Answer: B

Page Ref: 7

3. Which of the following is the first element of the public relations process? A) evaluation

- B) communication
- C) research
- D) action

Answer: C

Page Ref: 14

4. Which of the following makes public relations a cyclical process?

- A) policy formation
- B) programming
- C) feedback
- D) program assessment and adjustment

Answer: D

Page Ref: 15

5. What word(s) best defines public relations in the 21st century?

- A) strategic
- B) mutually beneficial
- C) tactical
- D) image building

Answer: A

Page Ref: 8

6. The advancement of public relations as a profession includes changing the long-standing (and incorrect) idea that public relations practitioners for organizations are:

- A) event planners.
- B) human resource managers. C)
- news release writers.
- D) journalists in residence.

Answer: D

Page Ref: 16–17

7. Which is an essential ability for a public relations practitioner?

- A) expertise in social media
- B) database management
- C) networking
- D) a good work-life balance

Answer: A

Page Ref: 26

8. Skills in public relations are:

- A) mostly people skills
- B) mostly knowledge of media tracking methods
- C) dependent on the specific job
- D) the same regardless of the job

Answer: C

Page Ref: 28

9. Which of the following is accurate with regard to the relationship between public relations and advertising?

- A) Advertising is usually more costly.
- B) Advertising is usually seen as more credible than public relations.
- C) Advertising is more focused on internal audiences than public relations. D)
- Public relations is narrower in scope.

Answer: A

Page Ref: 20

10. Which is true with regard to internships?

- A) They are almost always unpaid, or paid at a maximum of $5 per hour
- B) They are not usually recommended for graduation.
- C) They provide managerial experience for undergraduates.
- D) There is a strong correlation between paid internships and starting salaries.

Answer: D

Page Ref: 30-31

11. A publicist would most likely be considered an "honorable" term in

- A) entertainment/celebrity business.
- B) nonprofit organizations. C)
- agency business.

D) corporate America.

Answer: A

Page Ref: 10

12. According to a 2013 report, the median annual salary for recent graduates in public relations was

A) $22,000. B)

$25,000. C)

$33,000. D)

$35,000. Answer:

C Page Ref: 32

13. The RACE acronym was articulated by

A) Edward Bernays.

B) John Marston.

C) Ivy Lee.

D) Walter Lindemann.

Answer: B

Page Ref: 14

14. IMC stands for:

A) Image Making Consulting

B) Integrated Marketing Communications

C) Imagining, Making Change

D) Ideas, Methods and Communication

Answer: B

Page Ref: 22

15. Which best describes the relationship between public relations and marketing?

A) Marketing professionals generally speak of customers and consumers, while public relations practitioners tend to focus on publics, audiences, and stakeholders.

B) Marketing professionals are seen as subservient to more seasoned public relations practitioners.

C) Marketing professionals aren't generally concerned with stakeholders. D)

Neither is concerned with advertising initiatives.

Answer: A Page

Ref: 20

16. What is brand journalism?

A) Journalism focused on a particular brand

B) A kind of content marketing in which paid media plays a minor role

C) A scenario where journalists are paid to write about a product

D) A practice that is frowned upon by public relations practitioners.

Answer: B

Page Ref: 23

17. The highest paid public relations professionals usually work for:

- A) agencies.
- B) not-for-profits
- C) corporations.
- D) themselves

Answer: C

Page Ref: 33

18. Employers usually require what thing in order for a paid internship position?

- A) that the student be a good typist
- B) that the student be able to perform administrative tasks
- C) that the student be at least a college junior
- D) a cover letter

Answer: C

Page Ref: 30

19. What is the going rate for paid interns at reputable national and international companies?

- A) $8 to $10 dollars an hour
- B) $10 to $12 dollars an hour
- C) $12 to $15 dollars an hour
- D) $16 to $20 dollars an hour

Answer: C

Page Ref: 30

1.2 True/False Questions

1. Edward Bernays coined the word "spin" in public relations.

Answer: False

Page Ref: 11

2. Public information and public affairs are the most widely used terms by nonprofits, universities and government agencies.

Answer: True

Page Ref: 10

3. Program planning is the bridge between research and communication in public relations. Answer: True

Page Ref: 14

4. A flack is an endearing term for a public relations practitioner that describes a hard-working, entrepreneurial type.

Answer: False

Page Ref: 13

5. Public relations practitioners write primarily for segmented, targeted audiences, and are less inclined to appeal to the masses.

Answer: True

Page Ref: 19

6. Journalism and public relations are fundamentally different in scope. Answer: True

Page Ref: 16

7. Marketing is primarily designed as a relationship-building strategy, and less focused on economic concerns.

Answer: False

Page Ref: 20

8. All organizations should serve society as a whole.

Answer: True

Page Ref: 34

9. Public relations pays relatively well compared to other communication professions.

Answer: True

Page Ref: 31

10. Business/economic competence is considered an essential ability for those pursuing a public relations career.

Answer: True

Page Ref: 26

1.3 Essay Questions

1. You are a recent college graduate in public relations at your university. Using the five essential abilities as a model, explain why you are the best person for the position. Use concrete examples with regard to your expertise, and how it relates to specific institutional activities or needs. Would you have more of a "technical" or a "managerial" role to start?

Page Ref: 25

2. Using current or recent television shows or movies as a backdrop, note how public relations practitioners (and the industry) has been depicted, either favorably or negatively. Use specific definitions and practitioner expectations from the chapter and illustrate your points.

Page Ref: 14