LO: 2.4 What elements are involved in identifying, creating, rejuvenating, or changing a brand's image?

121) When should a company consider rejuvenating or changing its image and how should it be done?

Answer: A company should consider rejuvenating or changing its image when sales have declined or a competitor has taken a strong market position in the industry. Any time the brand has suffered a decline in brand equity is a good time to consider rejuvenating an image.

Rejuvenating an image requires developing a campaign that is consistent with the current image, while at the same time incorporating new elements into the image to expand the firm's target market and to reconnect with previous customers.
