Introduction to the History of Psychology 7th Edition Hergenhahn Test Bank

Full Download: http://testbanklive.com/download/introduction-to-the-history-of-psychology-7th-edition-hergenhahn-test-bank/

Chapter 2: The Early Greek Philosophers

MULTIPLE CHOICE

- 1. Viewing all of nature as though it were alive is called:
 - A. anthropomorphism
 - B. animism
 - C. primitivism
 - D. mysticism

ANS: B DIF: factual REF: The Ancient World

- 2. Projecting human attributes onto nature is called:
 - A. anthropomorphism
 - B. animism
 - C. primitivism
 - D. vitalism

ANS: A DIF: factual REF: The Ancient World

- 3. Why were the Greek nobility more likely to follow the Olympian religion rather than the Dionysiac-Orphic religion?
 - A. Belief in the transmigration of the soul
 - B. The personification of orderliness, rationality, and intelligence in the Olympian gods
 - C. Desire to hold onto past lives even after death
 - D. Fear of condemnation for living an extravagant lifestyle

ANS: B DIF: conceptual REF: The Ancient World

- 4. An area in cognitive development that concerns how we come to know the beliefs, feelings, plans, and behavioral intentions of other people is referred to as:
 - A. theory of forms
 - B. theory of the mind
 - C. laws of subjective norms
 - D. laws of association

ANS: B DIF: factual REF: The Ancient World

NOT: new

- 5. Which example best illustrates the concept of theory of the mind?
 - A. Brandon's brain controls his body, and his mind controls his thoughts and emotions.
 - B. Javier reads a passage in a book, and draws from his past experiences to understand its meaning.
 - C. Stephanie understands that she is looking at a flower because of the coordinated processes of sensation and perception.
 - D. While walking down the street, Camilla turns the corner to avoid a man with an angry look on his face.

ANS: D DIF: applied REF: The Ancient World

NOT: new

6.	Philosophy began: A. to explain how the supernatural controls natural events B. with the introduction of deductive reasoning C. when logos replaced mythos D. with the discovery of the brain as the center of intelligence
	ANS: C NOT: new	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The First Phil	osophers
7.	Who was the A. Heraclitu B. Anaxima C. Thales D. Democri	is ander	size natural exp	olanation	ns and to minin	nize supernatural o	explanations?
	ANS: C	DIF:	factual	REF:	The First Phil	osophers
8.	The early Grad. spirit B. atom C. universal D. physis		a substance fr	om whic	ch everything e	lse is derived as a	(n):
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	The First Phil	osophers
9.	According to Anaximander, the physis was something that: A. was too complex to explain life B. was incapable of deriving into anything C. had a finite number of possibilities D. had the capability of becoming anything
	ANS: D	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The First Phil	osophers
10.	What important epistemological question was raised by Heraclitus' philosophy? A. What does it mean to be me? B. How can something be known if it is constantly changing? C. Why would a man want to step into the same river more than once? D. What constitutes the good life?
	ANS: B	DIF:	applied	REF:	The First Phil	osophers
11.	Parmenides believed that knowledge is attained only through rational thought because sensory experience: A. is a supernatural force B. provides illusion C. is illogical D. is a distracter from the truth
	ANS: B	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The First Phil	osophers

12. In order for an object to pass from point A to point B, it must first traverse half the distance between those two points, and then half of the remaining distance, and so forth. Therefore A can never logically reach point B. This scenario best illustrates: A. the relativity of truth B. philosophical inconsistency C. a Kuhnian paradigm clash D. Zeno's paradox ANS: D DIF: applied REF: The First Philosophers NOT: new 13. According to the Pythagoreans, perfection is found: A. only in the empirical world of mathematical relationships B. only in the abstract mathematical world and understood only by reason C. in both the empirical and abstract worlds of mathematics D. in neither the empirical nor the abstract worlds ANS: B DIF: conceptual REF: The First Philosophers 14. Which aspect of Empedocles' philosophy might be used to explain the types of intrapersonal and extrapersonal conflicts described later in history by Freud? A. The transmigration of the soul B. The forces of love and strife that wax and wane within us C. The elements of earth, fire, air, and water D. The clashes of atoms REF: The First Philosophers ANS: B DIF: applied 15. Empedocles assumed that perception results when: A. vibrations from external objects stimulate sense receptors B. sensory information is analyzed by the brain C. eidola enters the pores of the body and mixes with elements found in the blood D. sensations interact with memories of prior experiences ANS: C REF: The First Philosophers DIF: factual 16. No matter how complex something is, Democritus believed that it can be explained in terms of atoms and their activity. This view is referred to as: A. solipsism B. animism C. elementism D. material cause ANS: C DIF: conceptual REF: The First Philosophers 17. Because Democritus attempted to explain events occurring in one domain (observable phenomena) in terms of events occurring in another domain (the arrangements of atoms), he is considered a(n): A. elementist B. reductionist C. physicist D. Orphist REF: The First Philosophers ANS: B DIF: applied

18.	For Democritus, p and were tran A. pores of the bo B. sensory system C. pores of the bo D. sensory system	nsmitted to ody; heart ns of the b ody; liver	o the ody; brain	atoms e	emanating from the surface of objects entered the
	ANS: B	DIF:	factual	REF:	The First Philosophers
19.	C. that sensation,	ulted from s job was t memory,	a balance of control of the help the pating thinking, and the	ent focu understa	in the body s energy on the mind anding occurred in the heart state disconnects from our mental state
	ANS: A	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The First Philosophers
20.	The Hippocratics I A. possession by B. a life characte C. an imbalance D. the patient's in	evil spirits rized by he of the four	s edonism bodily humor		s caused by:
	ANS: C	DIF:	factual	REF:	Early Greek Medicine
21.	According to the FA. charge larger to B. make the disease C. mask their ign D. cure the disease	fees for the ase more c orance con	eir services omprehensible ncerning the na	e to their
	ANS: C	DIF:	factual	REF:	Early Greek Medicine
22.	The "cures" propo A. fervent prayer B. drinking fluids C. rest, proper die D. putting their e	and suppl s specially et, exercise	ication to the (prepared by the, fresh air, ma	Gods ne physi assage, a	cian nd baths
	ANS: C	DIF:	factual	REF:	Early Greek Medicine
23.	According to the SA. The truthfulne B. How effective C. The scientific D. The idea's use	ess of the idea ly the idea evidence of	dea is communica	ated	es if an idea is accepted as the truth?
	ANS: B	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth

	A. Truth depends on the physical reality, not on the perceiver B. What is truth should not be affected by the culture one lives in C. Perceptions vary from person to person because previous experiences affect perceptions D. Perceptions are similar from person to person because we all share a similar reality
	ANS: C	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth
25.	Because Gorgias be A. solipsist B. Socratic C. nihilist D. reductionist	lieved th	at there is no o	objective	e way of establishing truth, he was a:
	ANS: C	DIF:	applied	REF:	The Relativity of Truth
26.	Which statement be A. If animals could B. There is no obje C. We share a real D. Empirical evide	l describ ective wa ity and a	e their gods, thay of determinations is similar percep	nose god ing truth ption of	s would have animal characteristics. reality.
	ANS: B	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth
27.	A. religious and mB. if animals could characteristicsC. using the technic	oral "tru I convey ques of	their impressi inductive defir	on of go	ods, those gods would have animal ojective truth can be ascertained on the contents of the soul
	ANS: B	DIF:	factual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth
28.	Socrates used the m common. A. Sophistry B. inductive defini C. introspection D. logical deduction	tion	to detern	mine wh	at all examples of a concept such as beauty have in
	ANS: B	DIF:	factual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth
29.	For Socrates, essent A. impossible to do B. verbal definition C. transcendental to D. unimportant	etermine ns
	ANS: B	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	The Relativity of Truth

24. Protagorus, the best known Sophist, presented the Sophist's position. Which of the following

30.	Plato's theory of forms is best represented by the statement: The cats that we see are: A. superior copies of an abstract incomplete form of "catness" B. inferior copies of an abstract pure idea of "catness" C. manifestations of our sensory processes but in actuality we cannot know if they exist D. concrete forms born of our sensory processes, proving their existence
	ANS: B	DIF:	applied	REF:	Plato	NOT:	new
31.	According to Plato, the components of the soul are: A. really the same B. typically in harmony with one another C. often in conflict with one another D. subservient to the bodily needs
	ANS: C	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	Plato
32.	The allegory of the cave demonstrates: A. how difficult it is to deliver humans from ignorance B. that truth is relative C. that most humans have a passionate desire to know the truth D. that learning is remembering
	ANS: A	DIF:	applied	REF:	Plato
33.	Plato's analogy of the divided line illustrates: A. the influences of the soul B. an existence in the shadows of reality C. the need for sensory experience D. a hierarchy of understanding
	ANS: D	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	Plato	NOT:	new
34.	According to Plato's reminiscence theory of knowledge, all knowledge is: A. personal opinion B. innate C. derived from sensory experience D. culturally determined
	ANS: B	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	Plato
35.	According to Plato, whether one is a philosopher-king, a soldier, or a slave, is largely determined by: A. personal effort B. educational experience C. the social influence of one's parents D. biological inheritance
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	Plato
36.	Plato believed that the ideal society would be governed by: A. God B. common people C. philosopher-kings D. soldiers
	ANS: C	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	Plato

37.	According to Plato, the supreme goal in life should be to: A. give all components of the soul equal expression B. return to the world beyond the world C. be courageous in the face of danger D. free the soul as much as possible from the adulterations of the flesh
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	Plato
38.	The particular for A. material B. formal C. efficient D. final	m or patter	n of an obje	ect is its	cause.
	ANS: B	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
39.	The force that train A. material B. formal C. efficient D. final	nsforms ma	atter into a p	oarticular fo	form is its cause.
	ANS: C	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
40.	The purpose for wA. material B. formal C. efficient D. final	vhich an ob	oject exists i	s its	cause.
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
41.	According to Arisits full potential was entelechy B. instincts C. form of the go	as reached	•	object mov	oving or developing in its prescribed direction	until
	ANS: A	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
42.	Because Aristotle A. religious B. empirical C. teleological D. nativistic	assumed t	hat everythi	ing in natur	are exists for a purpose, his theory is labeled:
	ANS: C	DIF:	applied	REF:	Aristotle

43.	 According to Aristotle, we perceive environmental objects because: A. tiny copies of them enter the pores of the body B. their movement influences a medium, which in turn stimulates one or more of the five senses C. their eidola go through one or more of the five senses and then to the heart D. their eidola go through one or more of the five sense and then to the brain
	ANS: B		conceptual
44.	Aristotle postulated A. the mind B. the soul C. the entelechy D. common sense	as	the mechanism	n that co	oordinates information from the five senses.
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
45.	For Aristotle, sensor A. is the only thing B. is unnecessary for C. is necessary but D. inhibits the attain	necessor attain	ary for attaining ning knowledge ficient for attair	2
	ANS: C	DIF:	conceptual	REF:	Aristotle
46.	According to Aristot A. is God B. is nature C. sets nature in mo D. has the same ess	otion an	nd does little else the form of the	se e good	Aviotatla
	ANS: C	DIF:	conceptual	KEF:	Aristotie
47.		_ invol ring ecall ssociatio	ves an actual m		llection of something that had been previously arch for a past experience.
	ANS: B	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle
48.	The law of state experienced along water A. similarity B. frequency C. contrast D. contiguity		if we think of s	omethin	ng, we will also tend to recall the things we
	ANS: D	DIF:	factual	REF:	Aristotle

Introduction to the History of Psychology 7th Edition Hergenhahn Test Bank

Full Download: http://testbanklive.com/download/introduction-to-the-history-of-psychology-7th-edition-hergenhahn-test-bank/

- 49. What aspect of Aristotle's philosophy became the cornerstone of most modern theories of learning?
 - A. The reminiscence theory of knowledge
 - B. The laws of association
 - C. The notion of common sense
 - D. The assumption that the souls of the living organisms are arranged in a hierarchy

ANS: B DIF: conceptual REF: Aristotle

- 50. According to Aristotle, ____ is explained as the lingering effects of sensory experience.
 - A. common sense
 - B. imagination
 - C. scala naturae
 - D. entelechy

ANS: B DIF: factual REF: Aristotle